

Dear Norman,

3/9

1- The merry-go-round has started. Newspaper interviews, radio interviews, TV interviews, luncheon meetings, supper meetings, committee meetings, receptions, greetings. It all adds up to talk, speech, talk, speech etc. Me — 7 1/2 hr. as pt.

The worst of it is lack of sleep. Since Monday 5 AM NY to Wed midnight here I slept nothing. Even then I've averaged 5 hours. My usual problem in talking is to keep the audience awake. Here I struggle to keep awake myself.

2- Thanks for the cable. 7 PM NY. Please remember your promise.

Also — the phone call.

3- I've given lot. [at this point I had to leave to run to next classes at the school. It's now late afternoon 2 PM] I thought to the night he'll see. My personal feeling is that Hooker has the more logical position because he avoids the inherent contradiction of accepting an arbitrary date-line which has no roots in B.I. Considering that J.B.'s intuition (or his own reasons) leads to a similar conclusion, at the moment (if I don't chicken out) I'm inclined to follow it about B.I. The other (res) position leaves me cold because if B.I. is not required, then

FOLD FLAPS BEFORE MOISTENING ADHESIVE

Why not the 2nd week too
(which is impossible)

That's all for now because I must still prepare for real AM real ~~for~~ note, perhaps for 11/31 maybe for a 23/80. The wind is that I have to sit sudden hours smiling & talking "intelligently" or looking intelligent when I'm not. I wish that I'd rather be in bed & asleep.
