STATEMENT: (INCLUDE COMMENTS ON TEACHING, RESEARCH, PUBLICATIONS, PROFESSIONAL AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES, AND DEPARTMENT AND COLLEGE ACTIVITIES.)

Dr. Norman Lamm is an excellent teacher, completely knowledgeable not only in the subject of mysticism and Hasidism which he is teaching but in all related fields of Rabbinic and Jewish philosophical thought. He speaks without notes of any kind in a relaxed manner, is friendly to the students, encourages them to ask questions and to engage in discussion. He has an incisive mind and from time to time poses challenging questions to stimulate discussion. Dr. Lamm is obviously an experienced teacher, clear in his thinking and uses telling examples to illustrate his points. He makes every effort to explain each term he uses, writing it on the blackboard for greater effect. I found the class interesting and informative. The students are fortunate, in my opinion, to have one with his background and abilities as their teacher.

Chairman's note:

I also observed Prof. Lamm on February 10. I agree with Prof. Noveck's evaluation. Prof. Lamm is an erudite and challenging teacher.
