Dear Rabbi Lamm

What I remember
of Rabbi Soloveitchik's Tahr.
Zut Shomer at least 12 years ago is ^{only} the following:

He compared the Brisker Rav with Tehudah because he was a great fighter.
According to Rabbi Soloveitchik: recall his grandfather the Brisker Rav told him once, that from nature he was a fighter, & every day he had to fight with himself. He repaid his Dikhtukh. He gave a lot of explanations, which unfortunately I don't remember, but probably there exists in the Yeshiva a tape, which recollects Rabbi's speech. He compared his other grandfather the grand grandson of Rabbi Chaim Voloskimer with Tan-sef, but that does not interest you so much for the time being. Naturally he explained that the Bruck was a great baal haloshah.

I am afraid, I deap-point you, because I thought my memory was better
