Dear Norman,

I happened to see your article in Panini & Panini. I not only agree with your conclusions - I already read it myself to a number of people. I also thought you'd find the enclosed appropriate. What I felt was missing from your article was the other side of the coin. <sup>הצד השני</sup> The bill is terrible and I felt Zupdal should have left the Coalition on it. (Indeed I wrote a long letter about it to J.B.) But, Zupdal is also right that the rabbinate here is to blame for much of the problem and, in the present situation, more to blame than anyone else.

All my best,
Charles
