Dear Norman,

Saw reprint of your article on 5th amendment, reprinted from Judaism. Score an A in Talmud and Psychology but an F in law.
The common law is well aware of the dangers of confessions that you point out. 5th amendment is not the only safeguard. See any good law encyclopedia or Horn Book on criminal law and look up rule of "Corpus Delicti". Also statutory rules on need for corroboration.

All the best,
