Dear Mr. Stern:

Now that Armand is married, I feel free in reminding you of something which we have discussed several weeks ago.

When I was in St. Louis, I met the family of [REDACTED], a marvelous young girl, who is very anxious to attend Stern College. You said you would call Dean Vogel and/or Dr. Mirsky about her.

Since she has not yet heard from the school, it would be deeply appreciated by the family were you to remind them about it.

Cordially yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
