Dear Izzie:

Walter and I have drawn up a list of articles to be included in "A Tradition Treasury." The enclosed is the draft of a letter we'd like sent to the contributors. The accompanying sheet provides the names of the writers and their articles.

Please have your office send this out and inform us of all responses.

Dear _____:

It has been proposed that in the near future there will be published an anthology of articles that have appeared over the past several years in TRADITION. We have been asked, by the RCA to ~~ask~~ act as co-editors of the book which, we hope, will present some of the more enduring material of TRADITION in an attractive, permanent form.

Accordingly, we have consulted with the Editorial Committee of TRADITION, and with each other, and have ~~now~~ compiled a list of articles for re-publication in what we have decided to call "A Tradition Treasury." Included in this list is your material, namely, your article on _____

_____.

We solicit your written ~~your~~ consent for publication "A Tradition Treasury." Please bear in mind that we want to re-publish the articles as they are, and can accept only typographical corrections and deletion of material which you ~~may~~ believe may be obsolete. No additions can be accepted.

Please be kind enough to send us your consent as well as the minor corrections mentioned as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

RABBI WALTER WURZBURGER
