Dear Norm,

I am delighted that you have accepted the editorship of the projected Festschrift in honor of Dr. Belkin. The good news reached me yesterday morning from Leonard Rosenfeld and I hasten to let you know how pleased I am.

I hesitate to include in this letter a matter of a very different character, but these have been days of uneven tenor, including both deep sadness but also some very happy things. Permit me, then, to tell you here how very much all of us appreciated your warm words following the passing of my father Ztz'l. They brought comfort and I am grateful.

Warm personal regards and best wishes for my 222 51

Sincerely,

A. Leo Levin
