

September 14, 1967

Mr. Morris E. Sacks
115 Roosevelt Ave.
Syracuse, N.Y. 13210

Dear Mr. Sacks:

I shall be most pleased to serve as an honorary patron of the Upstate Council of Youth for Soviet Jewry.

Good luck in all your undertakings, and may the Almighty grant that our brethren in Russia experience the true redemption this year so that our organization no longer has a reason for existence by next year.

Sincerely yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM

RNL/fz