Dear Milton:

Many thanks for sending me reprints of your two articles on Huxley. While I shall not be able to read them until after Yom Kippur for reasons of my obvious preoccupation-- I look forward to doing so with great relish, and meanwhile trust what the Talmud calls a "chazakah" of a proven scholar.

My very, very fondest regards to Ruth and your daughter from Mindy and my family and our sincerest wishes for a happy, blessed, and creative New Year.

Cordially yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
