Dear Norman

Your article on Fun isn't a bit funny. It really merits commendation.

I, for one, did follow your idea in seeking—not fun, but happiness. I pursued happiness ^{even} in times of distress.

And G-d was good to me and I can say that now I reached some measure of happiness in the fact that my children and my children's children are as I always pictured they would be. Thanks to you

May I now start to pursue a little fun? ^{now &} Pap
