Dear Rabbi Lamm,

On a Friday night a few months ago, I had the distinct pleasure of meeting you at the Synagogue in P.D. We talked at length, mostly about an individual who meant a great deal to both of us - my late uncle Hy Tuchman Esq. When I returned home, I informed my parents about our meeting and they of course remembered your relationship with Hyman. Last week my mother asked me to write you and invite you to deliver the eulogy at the unveiling which will take place on Sunday - either June 4 or June 11. I will fly into N.Y. to take part in the ceremony. I do hope I will have the privilege of joining with you in this memorial to a well deserving man. Please inform me whether you will be able to participate and I will let you know the exact date and location. Thank you so very much.

Sincerely
Ronnie Gross
