Dear Hans:

It was wonderful hearing from you, in all forms of communication -- telephone, telegram, and letters.

I have kept kept in constant touch with Dr. Abe Stern and hope to be meeting with a contingent of the key people two weeks from today.

The reason you could not reach me was that my telephone numbers have been changed, and our local telephone company is not quite the paragon of the vaunted American efficiency. For your further information, my numbers are: home - 212/799-1325, 799-2109 office - 724-3511.

Mindy and I are both pleased to hear about the improvement in Gini's health, and we are hopeful that the improvements will continue.

It is good to know that you will be here around Passover time ^{2/1}. We certainly look forward to seeing you and renewing our friendship.

Mindy joins me in very very warmest wishes to Gini and the children.

Cordially,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
