Dear Rabbi Isaac,

Many thanks for your last letter. I trust this note will not take 7 weeks to arrive...

We have just finished term here and are off in 1 hour to M/C for our In my last letter I reflected on the nature of marriage & you seemed, with your tremendous experience to concur!

To carry the Good Book's advice a little further, we hope in July to have another summer in the Tabor household etc. We both hope that his/her growing up will be less turbulent than ours has been.
So until I can inform you of some more exact good news I'll wish

P.S. You did mention to remind you about sending a copy of your latest book - which we eagerly await filled no doubt with the usual fine goodies - if you will excuse the expression!
