Dear Norman, <sup>4</sup> 01W

Your Sefer arrived this morning. Thank you so much for sending me a copy. I am about to leave for Israel shortly for a long study leave prior to taking up office of Chief Rabbi, and I hope to have the opportunity to study it intensively then.

I have read some of the chapters which have appeared in print before and found them uniformly superb yeshar cokhekhah. A really impressive achievement. I am lost in admiration.

Thanks again and with warmest regards,

Yours sincerely,

Jonathan Sacks
