My dear Rabbi Rabinowitz:

I am delighted to learn that you will be visiting in New York from December 25 to January 18.

At present I have no plans to be out of town during that time and do hope to have the pleasure of welcoming you and visiting with you during your stay with your sister-in-law and brother-in-law.

On behalf of Rabbi Jung and myself I would like to extend to you an invitation to preach from the pulpit of the Jewish Center on Saturday, January 7. It will be an honor and pleasure for our congregation to hear you at that time.

With all good wishes,

Respectfully,

Rabbi Norman Lamm
