Hon. James L. Buckley
The United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator:

Thank you very much for sending me the copies of your two speeches, one on the Sixth Fleet and the other on national defense.

I am pleased at the enthusiastic reception you received for the talks on the Navy at the National Press Club. After reading it, I can very well understand why your audience was so appreciative of your remarks.

I do want you to know, Mr. Senator, how deeply I admire the independence and integrity of your stands in the Senate.

Thank you again for sending me the material and for writing to me.

Cordially yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
