On November 7, 2007 Dr. Norman Lamm e-mailed the following text to you: "I understand from my secretary, Mrs. Ida Schwartz, that you inquired as to whether I would permit you to translate the article on Tzeniut into Chinese.

Of course, it will be my pleasure to see you do it; it would give me even greater pleasure if I were able to read it in Chinese...

Good luck on your work in the area of philosophy and theology, and if there is anything I can do from this distance to assist you from the Jewish point or view, I shall be glad to oblige you."

Dr. Lamm would be most interested in hearing from you as to the progress you are making in your Chinese translation.

Wishing you much success in this special task.

With kindest regards,

Ida D. Schwartz
Executive Secretary to
DR. NORMAN LAMM
