Dear Rabbi Lamm:

When I saw you in Long Beach last week, you mentioned to me a Chassidic manuscript that came into your possession, and said you would be pleased to lend it to us. We are prepared to send a special messenger to pick it up, if you will be good enough to advise me as to the most convenient time. Needless to say, the manuscript will be well taken care of and safely returned.

May I take this opportunity to again express my pleasure, and I am sure I speak for the whole audience, at the illuminating address which you gave us last week.

Sincerely yours,

Nissan Mindel
