My Dear Chief Rabbi Brodie:

I received today from Israel a copy of Hekhal Yitzhak by the late Chief Rabbi Herzog, of blessed memory.

An accompanying note informed me that it was being sent to me with your compliments.

May I thank you most kindly for your thoughtfulness in having the volume sent to me. I truly appreciate it.

At the same time let me tell you personally what I and all my colleagues have been telling each other and all our friends: that you have our deepest and most everlasting admiration for your courageous display of principle with regard to the unfortunate controversies taking place in London - a quality all too rare in the contemporary rabbinate.

May G-d grant you and Mrs. Brodie many years of strength, health, and continued creativity on behalf of Torah and Israel.

Respectfully yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
