Dear Dr. Brayer:

My regrets for the fact that the invitation to the Festschrift was the first one you had received. Even Rabbis are fallible.

The subject you project for your article for the book sounds very good. I look forward to reading it most eagerly.

This is to acknowledge receipt of your report on [REDACTED].

I cannot tell you how delighted I am to have received this kind of report. I feel it will help me immeasurably in guiding him when such guidance will be requested of me.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
