

Janet Goller
51 West 81 Street
New York, New York 10024

April 28, 1970

Dear Rabbi Lamm,

I had to leave the "Exodus" assemblage early last Sunday and did not have the opportunity to say good-bye or to tell you how much I particularly enjoyed your opening remarks. The Dayenu "device" was superb and evoked a truly exciting (and excited) response.

The entire event was, in fact, a memorable one of which we all, and especially you, as chairman, can be proud. Congratulations!

Sincerely
Janet Goller