Dear Rabbi Lamm:

Firstly, let me, belatedly, send you and your family our very best wishes for many blessings in the coming year, and for many years.

I am taking the liberty to write to you regarding some recordings of "Hazzanut" by the late Cantor Pinchas Jasinowsky. Years ago, when I served as Executive Secretary at the Jewish Center, I had the privilege of working with Cantor Jasinowsky, helping him distribute some of his music, and in fact I still have some of his sheet music, very sweetly inscribed to me. We had no idea that Mr. Julius had passed away, and I originally wrote to him about it, several months ago. I know that Cantor Jasinowsky has recorded some of his "Hazzanut" and we would be most interested in purchasing his records.

I am wondering if I may impose on you to refer this letter to the relevant authority at the Jewish Center and have him advise me if the Center itself owns any of Cantor Jasinowsky's records and if they are available for sale. Or, perhaps they know his daughter's name and could inquire from her if she would be ready to sell the records. We would also appreciate knowing:

How many records are available
What are the selections of each
What is their price

We have many friends visiting us from the States, so as soon as we have the necessary information, we could send a dollar check to cover and arrange for someone to bring the records to us.

Looking forward to greeting you here in Israel, and with renewed good wishes from both of us,

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Michel Zamir
