Mr. Gene Lowenthal
46 Sderot Eshkol
Ramot Eshkol, Israel

Dear Mr. Lowenthal:

I was very very pleased that you responded with such alacrity and efficiency to my sister Tzibi's request for a reprint of the Israeli Law Review article. It came to me in record speed and almost simultaneously with Tzibi's note that she had forwarded the request to you.

I am deeply grateful to you and hope you will let me know what expenses were incurred so that I may compensate you for them.

Do give my fondest regards to Sue and the children.
All best wishes.

Cordially,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
