Dear Rabbi Lamm,

Apologies for the delay in writing. However my parents only today forwarded their travelling dates + I hasten to advise you of the following.

My parents leave for Israel on the 18th February.
They have already sub-leased their apartment + moved to the holiday resort - Huisgenbos, 18 miles out of Cape Town.

Should you be able to visit Cape Town, my brother

+ sister-in-law will be delighted to meet you + show you the Town.

Solly + Estelle YACHT
'Chequers'

Newlands Road

Claremont. Cape Town.

Claremont is a suburb of Cape Town.

Solly is a former Olympic Swimmer + he + his wife are delightful people.

My parents are so sorry they and their home will not be available to you. They are antithodox & strictly kosher — my brother is not but showed you visit him I know he & his wife will make every effort to respect your belief.
(my brother is still antithodox at heart,

learned in Hebrew but too weak to enforce his beliefs)

The largest congregation is at Sea Point where my parents live. My father was president of the Sea Point Synagogue - I think my cousin is or was President. His home is strictly Kosher & he & his wife are lovely. Please contact them.

They know you're coming & look forward to meeting you.

Have a wonderful Trip. Johannesburg is miserable - Cape Town is a dream!

Last Tuesday evening
we had the pleasure of unexpected but wonderful company. Dr. Sidney B. Hoenig

Professor of Jewish History, Yeshiva University N.Y. spoke on "Maimonides Speaks to us
. . . now" at the synagogue.

A room was booked for him at the Americans but we felt it too impersonal & invited him to our home. I wish I was more educated in Jewish History — Talking to him was such an inspiration!

[For several days I walked around with that horrible feeling of inadequacy — till I realized we all can't be History Professors! But I can & will fill the void in my Jewish Heritage by reading & study.]

Keeps well. Have a wonderful Trip & a safe

-9-

Return. What will your address be in Johannesburg should someone be going there then.

Very sincerely,

Dorothea - Jane (Roth)

P.S. Also the dates you will be in S. Africa.
