Dear Mr. Feldheim:

I just noticed the ad you placed in a recent issue of Hadoar, congratulating me upon my election to the presidency of Yeshiva.

I hope some day to deserve the accolades you have bestowed upon me, and I am grateful to you for your warm blessings.

Please give my fondest regards to your wife and children and to Rabbi Lasdun, for a year of health and happiness, of creativity and redemption for all Israel.

Cordially yours,

NORMAN LAMM
