Assemblyman Al Blumenthal
Senator Alfred Orenstein
720 Columbus Avenue
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Blumenthal:

As one who has had experience with several bank life insurances, both in Massachusettes and New York, I have found myself to be a completely satisfied customer.

I have always been distressed that the government arbitrarily set a $30,000 limit on such policies.

I most strongly urge you to do all you can to support legislation which will remove this arbitrary limit.

The consumers of this state deserve this low-cost protection.

Sincerely,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
