My dear Rabbi Jung:

From a letter that I received from you regarding the Kashruth Board, I imagine that you are back in town, just as I am back on the job.

I have a feeling that Rabbi Lamm is not yet back in the city. That is why I am troubling you with the enclosed copy of the letter which I received.

I do not take seriously the observations of Rabbi Adams on the subject of an earlier Selichoth service. I am only anxious to find out if the Jewish Center is still abiding by its decision, and Kehilath Jeshurun will follow your example.

All good wishes to you and to the entire family for the New Year.

Very cordially yours,

Joseph H. Lookstein
