

(2)

August 6, 1976

Dear Rabbi Lamm

Not too many years ago, when I had the rare privilege of assisting you while you were writing your brilliant dissertation (a service from which I derived considerable pleasure and enormous enlightenment) I envisioned the well deserved honor today bestowed upon you by Yeshiva University.

I Congratulate the University upon its wise selection and I express the hope that each day will bring you added happiness as you go from strength to strength.

Cordially, Dorothy Rosen