

1) ...

2) Torah's economy words - why geographical intr. in ...

Further: often in ... With history, such as ... logical - But why others? For instance, this ... and again ...

3) From ... : reexam all Torah's laws: freedom - not necessarily political sense, but spiritual. Torah our Emancip. Proclamation, emancipating us from petty bondage we sometimes only dimly perceive. Hence: ... before ... (giving us purpose before process) ...

But most significantly where ... is explicit in relating law to ... it aims at freeing us from a special ... symbolized by ... Examples:

a) and portem ... - some people not satisfied dethroning as cross, best or modesty, even ethics & taste. Instead ... - excessive significance - status symbol ... slave fur ... handw. drapery with style, fond of fashion ... bondage to some anonymous Parisian resawaller - when ... in self, son: emancipate ...

b) after ... well decorated, furnished ... Then: ... enslaved house - NOT ONLY LIVE IN IT, BUT FOR IT ... = ... - emancipate ...

c) and ... - money in general, materialism ... an obsession

d) Further: some people generous, good-hearted - but only home, school, synog. - in office or shop as: "business is business" - law of jungle, ruthless, merciless, cruel ... not BAD - but MAD, possessed by irrational demon ... not own business, bus. owns them ... So: ... - no cruel business deals - ... freedom from this mad rule ...

e) even more pernicious, pervading slavery to routine, daily habits, regular vulgarities sanctified & sanctified by custom & customary usage ... hence ... - ... - ... dependence electrical gadgets, servitude telephone, own shopping & bookkeeping ...

f) most fall: tongue. For "le style c'est l'homme", hence "Freudian slips" valid index sub-conscious. ... - ... Hence man who in control own character development, master own ego & fate, can control tongue. Vice-versa too. Hence ... in own subtle variations, sign own servitude to complexity that is our determined self - not free man. If no control ... - are masters, free-men! Miriam - ... - ... Hence: ...

4) ...