Dear Moishe:

What is this business with Twersky? He tells me that he met you in Lakewood and that you said it is now up to me to provide a proper press release on your book.

To the best of my recollection, you were supposed to choose a section which you consider pertinent and then try to write it up, with me re-writing, and then submitting to Twersky.

Don't pass the buck. It stops with you.

Yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
