Dear Herman,

Enclosed is the address I referred to and which you asked me to send you for perusal and return.

I was glad to learn that your reaction and appraisal of the Papes' view and unwillingness to declare whose position is contrary to morality and the teaching of Holy Writ in the issues between Israel and the Arabs is identical to mine. When some years ago I censured in two articles in "Judaism" the over-emphasis of the identities of the Jewry - Christian Tradition, and ^{the} soft-peddling of the basic differences, some colleagues wanted to worry my neck. They made the precept of the common affirmations of the Jewry Christian Tradition the basis of Brotherhood week or month (during which period only the Rabbis made Brotherhood the theme of their sermons while the Christians continued to expound their destructive dogmas and their implications). Seeing your disposed to similar attitude I cease to have doubts about my own views & fears that it is "I" who am out of step. other side

Did you peruse the page ^{on Midrash} which I had in the Jan^{uary} little Bulletin of Gerbs - "To my Colleagues"?
I hope the Feb issue comes out before you leave.

If you deem them needed & ^{more} valuable than what had appeared it may be useful if you dropped Gerbs a note to that effect. (I don't receive any remuneration whatsoever for these. It is purely a labor of love & my irrepressible desire to teach & share)

Maybe we can meet for lunch or a short seminar before you take off for S. Africa.

Fraternally
Ernest
