THE CENTER MARKS A GREAT OCCASION

It is not often that a synagogue has the zekhut (privilege) to celebrate as joyous and significant an occasion as that which will be the happy lot of The Center Family this month.

Mr. William Feinberg, the Chairman of the Board of The Jewish Center and a former President of our institution, will <sup>shortly</sup> be celebrating his 85th birthday and will mark this milestone in his life by chanting the Haftorah on Shabbat Shekalim (February 28).

Mr. Feinberg is so very much a part of Center history, that it is inconceivable to write or even discuss the historic development of The Jewish Center without reference to his immeasurable contributions over the course of the years. In so many ways, he is indeed "Mr. Jewish Center." Not only has he directed the affairs of The Center in its most critical period and endeavored with all his might and main to keep our synagogue loyal to the vision of its founders, which is the vision of Orthodox Judaism, but in his own personality he so well represents what is distinctive and unique about The Jewish Center and its membership.

His simhah is not only that of his immediate family, but of the entire congregational family as well. We offer him our warmest congratulations and join his family in expressing to the Almighty our devout gratitude for having spared him and kept him alive and well and vital to reach, with us, this great moment in his life. We pray for his continued health and joy for many many years to come. May the Lord grant him the years, the equanimity,

When using elite type move in margin ¼-inch on both sides to 7-inch width. TYPE DOUBLE spaced between parallel lines. Each typed line will equal 2 printed lines (2¼-inches wide) or 1 doubleline (5-inches wide). Type your copy in duplicate and retain 1 copy (one set) for yourself. Number your copy consecutively (fill in left hand corner, top of this page). If story continues, repeat caption on continuing page(s) and number. Type each item of copy on a separate sheet of typing paper. At the end of each story mark "end" or #. When using our Illustration Cuts, specify Cat. No. above each article.
