Dear Dr. Lamm,

It is never too late to offer congratulations and best wishes, and so, somewhat belatedly, I would like to warmly congratulate you on your election to the distinguished post of President of Yeshiva University and to wish you every success in your challenging and difficult task.

I am proud to be an honorary alumnus of Yeshiva University. May I permit myself to say that the Board of the University has chosen wisely and well.

In sending you all my wishes for the future, I would add that the Hebrew University will be glad to co-operate in every way possible with Yeshiva University and I personally will be happy to foster and strengthen such co-operation wherever I can. I look forward to the pleasure of greeting you here.

With very best wishes.
