The Jewish Center

Dear Rabbi Lamm: Norm

Shalom Uvracha to you. As you may have heard, I recently became a ovel R.N. having lost my dear and beloved Mother, אם a true and devoted aishes chayil.

For some time now I have been working on a little booklet for mourners, and now in my sheloshim, I have decided to complete it, and make it available for publication. Knowing of your excellent qualifications as a Talmid Chocham and prolific writer (your lasted piece in the Jewish life evoked much discussion at a recent Adult Education Session in my synagogue), I felt you would be the best person to review the material and make whatever corrections you feel are important.

May, I therefore, impose upon your valuable time, and ask you to edit the manuscript for corrections in English usage as well as general format.

Dr. Hoenig was kind enough to read an earlier manuscript. The enclosed manuscript contains corrections that I made this week, and is the only one I have. I shall be eternally grateful for your suggestions and advice.

May we merit to see the restoration of Zion, and the coming of the Goale Tzedek.

Cordially,

Enc.

David
