

NAME: RABBI NORMAN LAMM
ADDRESS: 27 West 86th Street, New York, N. Y.
TELEPHONE: TR 7-4717

Place of Birth: Brooklyn, N. Y.
Date of Birth: December 19, 1927
Marital Status: Married
2 children

EDUCATION

Secular

Yeshiva College, B. A., 1949
Summa Cum Laude
Valedictorian

Candidate for Ph.D. at the Bernard Revel Graduate School of Yeshiva University

Religious

Yeshiva and Mesifita Torah Vodaath, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Smicha, Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary of Yeshiva University, 1951

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Assistant Rabbi, Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun, New York, N. Y.
Rabbi, Congregation Kodimoh, Springfield, Mass. - 1953-58
Associate Rabbi, The Jewish Center, New York, N. Y. (Since October 1958)

Rabbi Lamm is the author of numerous articles in both popular and learned journals in Hebrew and English. His articles have been published in JUDAISM, ORTHODOX JEWISH LIFE, THE JEWISH PARENT, CONGRESS WEEKLY, HADOAR, HAPARDES, HADAROM and TRADITION. His monograph in THE CHOSENNESS OF ISRAEL is soon to be published as part of Yeshiva University's STUDIES IN TORAH JUDAISM series.

Some of the topics on which Rabbi Lamm has published and on which articles by his pen are scheduled to appear shortly are:

1. The Fifth Amendment and the Halakhah
2. Halakhah and the Advances of Modern Science
3. New Horizons in the Relations of Judaism and Natural Sciences
4. A Halakhic and Philosophic Definition of "The Jewish Community"
5. Ritual and Ethics in Religious Education
6. The Choseness of Israel
7. Separate Pews in the Synagogue: A Social and Psychological Approach
8. The Conservative Amendment to the Ketubah
9. The Sacrificial Service, A Rationale
10. Capital Punishment in the Jewish Tradition
11. Kabbalah and Contemporary Thought
12. Feasts and Fasts in the Modern Era

AFFILIATIONS

Rabbinical Alumni Association of Yeshiva University
National Vice-President

Rabbinical Council of America
Editor, TRADITION-A Journal of Jewish Thought

Association of Orthodox Jewish Scientists
Charter Member

Yeshiva University Lecture Bureau