Rabbi Norman Lamm,
The Jewish Center,
131 West 86th Street,
New York,
N.Y. 10024.

Dear Rabbi Lamm,

I am most grateful to you for having sent me your book.

I have already written about it to Mr. Feldheim and I am sure he must have shown you this letter. The book is excellent and I can only marvel that you find time to write in spite of your many preoccupations.

I shall try to persuade the Jewish Marriage Advisory Council to adopt your book and to give it to couples intending to be married in London. It may be a little too expensive for them but I shall do all I can to persuade them that this expense is worthwhile.

With reiterated thanks,

Yours sincerely,

Norman Lamm
