

JHL - on p. 23 - "Ways of Standing Before G-d", 1952
 (this sermon was announced in Times Bulletin, but not preached because of weather.) (most of following text my own)

(see over)

There are many ways of standing before g-d.

- a) Tip-toe. Only an intellectual curiosity as to what religion is all about, but no attempt to take it seriously.

(בְּאַתְּ נִנְחָלָה) בְּדָקֵן וְבִתְּרַבְּשָׁי פָּסַח לְעִמָּיו בְּלֹא תַּקְרִבָּה after they removed בְּשָׂרֶב, after sin of golden calf, they no longer experienced real religion personally. It was only the tip-toe "peering" at religion, at men of religion - (next few words are: בְּלֹא תַּקְרִבָּה - they stand only to take a good look - & that's all). g-d is only a concept, a mystery, a study. They write books about it - but they don't live it.

- b) One Leg - The "I dare you" attitude so many people take to religion & teachers of religion - "I challenge you to convince me". Story of Hillel & the Proselyte, (אֶתְּנָא כְּלָבִישׁ).

- c) Flat-Footed - smugness, self-satisfaction. Fine done enough to religion & meant it sincerely. What more can you ask of me. About נִזְבָּח it's written (בְּשָׂרֶב) בְּלֹא יָפִיל' נִזְבָּח and say בְּלֹא יָפִיל' בְּשָׂרֶב
 → בְּלֹא יָפִיל'. Such an attitude prevents progress, etc. also - בְּלֹא מִזְבְּחָה
 (אֵל) בְּלֹא מִזְבְּחָה בְּלֹא יָפִיל' בְּשָׂרֶב.

- d) Shaking Legs - nervously, afraid of religion, not quite sure what kind of "heat" it is & what to expect of it. Fellow who comes to church & acts as if he expects to be put up against wall & face firing squad. At בְּשָׂרֶב, people also were jittery - church says (ibid): בְּלֹא יָפִיל' בְּשָׂרֶב יְהוָה תִּלְכָּה
 And then - at Sinai - how frightened they were: בְּלֹא יָפִיל' בְּשָׂרֶב standing alone at foot of mountain, amidst רְאֵבָה וְבְּרֵבָה, expecting perhaps an avalanche to hit them - בְּלֹא יָפִיל' בְּשָׂרֶב.

- e) How should it be? - Not "standing before g-d", but "standing beside g-d". g-d says to Moses (בְּאַתְּ נִנְחָלָה): בְּלֹא יָפִיל' בְּשָׂרֶב יְהוָה תִּלְכָּה - g-d invites man to partnership etc....

Additions & Corrections

- 1- can be used in ~~initial~~ when  $\text{פָּרָס}$  is read: also on Rosh Hashana because often it occurred on  $\text{בְּ}$ , or else the  $\text{פִּנְסֵף}$  for  $\text{בְּ}$  is from  $\text{בְּ}$ , (look it up)
  - 2- Start by saying that, first of all, before  $\text{גַּד}$  all are equal - there are no rear ranks, no  $\text{בְּלִינְצָן}$  +  $\text{בְּקָרְבָּן}$ . Before  $\text{גַּד}$  - it is  $\text{בְּ}$  - all equal:  $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$
  - 3- The "Shaking Leg" ( $\text{d}$ ) is somewhat shaky. If the need, instead, those who stand arrogantly before  $\text{גַּד}$  -  $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$  ( $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$ ), or Pharaoh ( $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$ ) thinking no  $\text{גַּד}$  (see context) etc.
  - 4- The "one leg" ( $\text{b}$ ) is better as - those who have no time (3 days a yr. enough in synagogue - calendar too crowded; kids have enough work, Sunday school enough etc.).
  - 5- For "Tip Toe" ( $\text{c}$ ) use  $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$  - tip of rocks, peek at  $\text{גַּד}$  - Nurses had this stage for but be passed on to something greater.
  - 6- Use ~~the~~ following ending - neither of all above any good - not standing before but standing + walking alongside of  $\text{גַּד}$  -  $\text{גַּד}$  to Nurses:  $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$ [or  $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$   $\text{בְּ}$  etc] - that's when man can learn the mess: that is the mess etc.
