

Handwritten signature/initials in brown ink.

January 31, 1972

Dear Rabbi: Lemm,

It was wonderful seeing you and Miri in Jerusalem. We hope that your return trip was smooth and that you found everyone well on your return.

At your convenience, please send me the name and address of the man whom you met at the hotel who is helping Russian Jews so effectively. I have mentioned his work to quite a few people, and I have found a great deal of interest.

Best regards.

Paul