Rabbi Norman Lamm
27 West 86 Street
New York, N. Y. 10024

Dear Norman,

I was delighted when I arrived at the office this morning to receive a mailgram from Max Etra telling me the good news of your election to the Presidency.

I want you to know that you have the good wishes, the co-operation and the prayers of all your colleagues, who know that you are possessed of the talents and energy to undertake this great assignment and who feel assured that you will, in the great tradition of your predecessors in that office, bring growth, dignity and creativity to the great institution of learning which all of us love and revere.

May the Almighty ever be in your corner to guide you and strengthen you.

Again, heartiest congratulations.

Cordially yours,

Rabbi Israel Klavan
