Dear Zvi:

Mrs. Lamm and I want to thank you for the tickets you gave us to see "Tango" on Saturday night.

We found the show just what you said it would be and even more. In an age when most of the stuff shown on Broadway is so puerile, it was a pleasure to see something that really had a message, and one that was of extreme importance for our generation. I did not read it as primarily a "generation gap" situation, as much as a telling commentary on the inevitable consequences of permissiveness.

Whatever our interpretations, we agree with you that it was splendidly done. Our only regret was that this did not appear on Broadway where it should have had a long and very successful run.

I hope that by now Hillel Gross has been in contact with you. He has been trying to do so for the longest time.

Warmest regards to Mrs. Kólitz.

Cordially yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
