Dear Friends:

Most regretfully, your invitation reached us the day of the Bar Mitzvah, because we had just returned from our summer vacation. That is why I was unable to telegram my wongratulations in time or, certainly, to attend personally,

To keep things in their proper chronological order, let me first welcome you back from your stay in Israel. A number of people had told me that they met you -- including the Aaron Greens -- and all of them brought back enthusiastic reports of your stay there.

And now please accept our most heartfelt and sincere congratulations upon the Bar Mitzvah of Ilan Daniel. May the Almighty grant that your Ilan bear your kind of perot which will distinguish him as a loyal son to his parents, a devoted member of his family, and, above all, as a fruitful and creative child of Israel. May you be blesse~~d~~ with years and years of undiminished "nachas."

Cordially yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
