Rabbi E. Munk
18, Rue Notre-Dame De Lorette
Paris 9, France

Dear Rabbi Munk:

Please accept my heartfelt thanks for the copy of your book, "La Justice Sociale en Israel" which I received early this week.

I have glanced at the Table of Contents and read several passages, and I can see immediately that the remains in full force!

I am anxiously looking forward to being able to read your works with much greater care and comprehensiveness in the very near future.

I plan to be in Paris for several hours on February 2nd, please G-d, where I will be stopping at the Leteia Hotel, 43 Boulevard Raspail, on my way to South Africa. If my flight plans go according to schedule, I hope to be able to call you up and speak with you.

Fondest regards to Mrs. Munk from Mrs. Lamm and myself.

Sincerely yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
