Rabbi Stanley Wagner
1570 Grand Avenue
Baldwin, L.I., N. Y.

Dear Stanley:

I shall try to accommodate you by sending you the manuscript of my address to the convention.

However, I am facing a delicate problem. I have already revised the talk into article form and submitted it to a Festschrift volume in honor of Rabbi Leo Jung scheduled to appear later in the year.

I do not know if this will create an insoluble conflict. If you still think that under the circumstances you want my manuscript, please be kind enough to notify me as soon as possible. Warmest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
