Dear Rabbi Dr. Lamm, C.F.

I delayed despatching my letter of 25th March to re-write it, but in view of the approaching Passover, hope you will forgive me for ~~doing so~~ just enclosing it

It gives me great pleasure to acknowledge receipt of your article for the newspaper, I have taken steps to see that it will be published in Sydney and Mrs. Werdiger will take it up and see that it will be published here.

I have great pleasure in sending you, under separate cover, the first brochure which we have produced. It was a very rushed job, but our second brochure for the next seminar should show some improvements.

Meanwhile, I hope I am forgiven for shortening your recommendation in this brochure.

Would it be possible for you to realise the dream expressed in the last paragraph and visit us again in Australia this year?

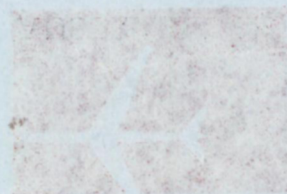

We hope that you, Mindy and the children will have enjoyed a lovely Seder, once more, fnb 1 16 8 16

Yours,

Shim & Hara
Shura Nuri Leon, Yehudit.

P. S. The 2 weekend Seminars of 4 days each we hope to make at $20-25 with permission in case of need.

Rabbi Dr. N. Lamm,
The Jewish Center,
131 West 86th Street,
NEW YORK, N.Y. 10024.

Dear Rabbi Dr. Lamm,

I just received Abe's letters of 13th and 18th March and we are definitely making progress. I also snatched some hours to copy Rabbi Apple's tapes and hope to send them to you still this week.

May I digress for a minute and refer to a theme developed by you suggesting that ~~when~~ we are introducing ~~new people~~ <sup>into a new group</sup>, we should not so much refer to their profession or activities, but develop a sensitivity to the human being as we meet him or her.

Now, in the past, it has been my custom to say a couple of words when introducing friends and acquaintances and I ~~felt that to~~ <sup>know</sup> something of their activities and past achievements may be a great help in developing a contact between those people who make an acquaintance for the first time. If I understood the words on the tape correctly you do not seem to be in favour of this, but on the other hand I may have misunderstood you and therefore I raise this point.

additional Whilst the seminars are taking shape, I will have to consider ~~the~~ individual or series of lectures which some of our American visitors may want to give to the groups whom you addressed in Melbourne and Sydney and to groups in Adelaide, Brisbane and possibly Perth. Since you know the people and since you have had the reaction of the various groups with whom you were in contact, it would be exceedingly helpful if we could get some guidance and reaction from you on this point.

In order not to cross any lines of communication, I'm sending a copy of this letter to Abe and I'm sure that this will meet with your approval. I'm also enclosing the initial formulation of how I envisage to present 'Counterpoint 5734' - its title, its idea and how I wish to stimulate the interest therein.
