

and how do you account for the anomaly that nowhere in your bulletin do you have a ~~xxx~~ Temple Sinai zip code and in one of your ads the address is listed as New York Lakeside Drive 24 (sic) Stamford, Connecticut 06903 N. Y.? How long has this advertiser been ensconced in his sarcophagus?

Dear Norm,

I'm one of your admirers and I'm sitting here chafing that I must miss the talk you're to give tomorrow morning at Roosevelt School here in Stamford.

I'm sitting in my office Tues. nite and I've just read your stirring talk, Dayenu.

It is a fine litany and splendid preachment. My compliments.

Knowing your sense of nuance in things Jewish, don't you think that you've taken that ~~xxx~~ precious word, dayenu, and although adhereing to its syntactical meaning reversed the connotations it has in the Hagadah? I tell my people that the syllable da in the Hagadah is an expression of thanks, that we say in the litany, O God, if only you had given us a smidgin of the many favors we enjoy we should say da, that would have been enuf.
So this syllable of gratitude it turned around by you and made into an expression of exasperation.
Get it? Chag sameach. Yours,
