Rabbi Norman Lamm,
The Jewish Center,
131 West 86th Street,
NEW YORK. N.Y. 10024. U.S.A.

Dear Rabbi Lamm,

Very many thanks for both your letters of 30th April and 2nd May, which I received this morning.

I apologise that I had not realised that you were coming from Fiji which is on the Australian side of the date line and therefore should not present any difficulties, except if one considers the alternate line opposite Jerusalem. Anyhow, we look forward to meeting you at the airport.

Now we shall try to finalise your itinerary here, but we declare that if you feel like changing the flight to two days earlier, arriving here on the Friday, you are most cordially welcome, and we promise you, if desired, a restful Saturday at our home.

Regarding your proposed departure, I regret to advise you that you may be in ^{your} strife as you will only gain the day after arrival at the first Yishuv (after crossing the date-line) Possibly you could give us that weekend and leave only on the Monday, 13th August, which would eliminate this difficulty.

I regret that I am not conversant with micro film readers.

Regarding the Rabbi in New Zealand, I shall make enquiries and advise you.

Your new topics are challenging and will attract great interest.

Kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

H. A. BACHRACH
