Rabbi Joseph Lookstein
125 East 85 St.
New York, N. Y.

Dear Rabbi Lookstein:

Many, many thanks for sending me your splendid new volume of homiletical essays. Reading through them evoked a good deal of nostalgia from me for the "good old days" when you trained me -- a nostalgia mingled with the same admiration which has not diminished, but rather increased through the years.

I do hope that "Faith and Destiny of Man" is but the first of a series of similar volumes.

Once again, therefore, my thanks and congratulations, together with my wishes to you and Mrs. Lookstein, and all your family, for a happy and kosher Passover.

Cordially yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
