Dear Dr. Asimov:

I understand you have a book to be published in the near future by Doubleday concerning extraterrestrial intelligent life.

I therefore have the honor to send to you the enclosed reprint of an article I wrote on the subject, in the hope of receiving some reaction from you when you have an opportunity to glance through the reprint.

I enjoyed your atticle in the current Harper's magazine, demonstrating as you did, the usual Asimov lucidity.

Sincerely yours,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
