Dear Rabbi Rabinovitch:

Your letter certainly is one which deserves an affirmative and enthusiastic response. Of course, I am anxious to co-operate.

I do not yet know of any specific plans for a visit to Israel but I hope to be speaking to Rabbi Itamar in the middle of January, p.G. At that time I will let him have more details, if any are available.

Congratulations on your admirable efforts.

Cordially,

RABBI NORMAN LAMM
